BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES IN FINLAND

The outlook for the travel industry in Finland looks very positive. Safe and sustainable business environment creates a strong foundation for the business.

Recently, Finland has earned a place among the hottest international destinations, being nominated among others by National Geographic Travel, Financial Times, Harper's Bazaar and Bloomberg. The premium travel and guidebook brand Lonely Planet ranked Finland in TOP10 in its Best in Travel 2017. Finland was the only European country to make it to the list.

FAST-GROWING INBOUND TOURISM FLOWS FROM ASIA CREATE NEW DEMANDS

In 2017, international travel to Finland broke all previous records and increased to a total of 8.3 million visits. Overnight stays (21 914 000) in all accommodation establishments have exceeded the previous record year of 2016. The same applies to hotels (17 483 700).

Russian visitors is the most prominent tourist group in Finland. Thanks to country's geographic location, Finland also offers opportunities for cross-border excursions for tourists. Finland has started to attract Chinese travellers with 21% increase in a year, totalling 432,500 in 2017. Of all the nationalities, Chinese visitors spent the most per visit (€1 186).

The awarded Helsinki-Vantaa airport offers the shortest route between Asia and Europe.

Finland's tourism highlights include destinations like the capital city Helsinki that was World Design Capital in 2012, the charming coast and archipelago, glittering blue Lakeland and magical Lapland. Four distinct seasons, including the summer with endless days and snowy winters, offer possibilities of year round varying tourism activities.

Conceptually the vast majority of hotels in Finland are positioned in the mid-scale, mid-price segment. This opens up new business opportunities especially within the budget, limited service, upscale, and luxury segments with Lapland's resorts included. Hostels are promising too. Finland welcomes new international operators and concepts to the market.
